

PROVISIONER

Wine For The People

2016 PROVISIONER PINK TABLE WINE

The Groundwork

In early frontier days the small-town, general store was the social hub and lifeline for the hardy pioneers that settled the American Southwest. These stores, or provisioners, sold everything from nails to flour, blankets to whiskey. Arizona, despite our efforts to tame her, is still a wild place with many secrets lying just below the surface. The most recent discovery is the propensity for the vine to thrive here and to yield a fine nectar that is indisputably Southwestern. Provisioner wines capture and share the soul of this place, and they do so in the spirit of the old-time general store: they support new exploration, they push us into new territory and make this quest we are on a little more honest and enjoyable. And all of this without breaking the bank. Drink well. These are wines for the people!

The Wine

Provisioner Wines are locally grown and produced to be enjoyed by everyone on any occasion. Arizona is well on it's way to becoming a place for great winemaking and winegrowing. With the burgeoning Arizona wine industry, the desire for this creation presented itself and the moment was seized. Using the unique Southwestern terrain, Provisioner Wines have quickly become a favorite throughout the Copper State. Each bottle is straightforward and delectable, and can be enjoyed by wine enthusiasts and temporary skeptics alike. From our vineyards to your table, our pledge to great wine can be tasted and enjoyed in each and every bottle of Provisioner Wines.

Tasting Notes

Nose: Ripe strawberry patch hits you first, with lime leaf and lemon peel lingering. Palate: Bright berry and melon with a flinty minerality, ripe nectarines remaining long on the finish.

Food Pairings

The Provisioner Rose is best paired with a light summer salad and goes well with Goat Cheeses, Melon and Prosciutto. It is best served chilled and is a refreshing summertime wine that is crisp and inviting.
